

I am most proud of my poster. I love showing people the steps it took to use strawberries in different ways.

I do not have a picture of my poster board. I did not know we needed a picture until it was all packaged up at the Extension Office.